The annual bowling challenge is with us again with the emphasis on sociable fun rather than all out competition. You don't have to be an expert player to take part and have fun—and there are prizes to be won.

Guests are welcome and will be included in the relevant playing team.

Spectators are also very welcome.

The cost is just Sfr 25 per head for competitors (this covers lane and shoe hire). After the Apéro the drinks and refreshments are at your own cost.

ZIWC BUSINESS FORUM

Our one time President, Max LUSTENBERGER, made the point of mentioning at the AGM that the ZIWC Business Forum meetings are well worth the effort of attending. As he said they are first class events with first class presenters.

The next meeting takes place on Tuesday March 28 2000 at the Congress Centre Metalli, Zug in a presentation entitled -

You'll have the possibility to experience real life situations and judge how well you do. IMCZ WEB SITE

For some 12 months now the IMCZ has been running an experimental Web Site on the Internet - the address is www.community.ch

This is a single page entry which comes free of charge as part of a community service. Within the next few weeks the existing page will be updated with revised text and naming the complete Board and giving specific contact details.

ZH KLOTEN ATC

Proving that Club members can help with finding and organising interesting events or visits—we mention Willy SCHOCH who through his contacts has arranged for a limited number of IMCZ members to visit the Air Traffic Control Centre in Kloten. Many thanks Willy.

The visit will take place on a Saturday in July—we just have to fix the actual date.

TRUE JOKE

Kathy Morse, 33, told a court in Utah that she was doing 93 mph because she had to get home quickly before she ran out of petrol.
